Modify field after exporting document

Phase	Description	Navigation
Configure modify field after exporting document	It is possible to configure the Document Export Inbound Container to modify a field when exporting the file. • In the field Modify action choose if it is a header or line field which should be modified • In Modify field choose the field that should be modified, click on lookup and choose field form the list. • In Modify value write the value that should be set into the field when modifying	Manually modify action	You can manually modify the container headers or lines according to the Modify setup. • Click on Modify based in Modify Action	Automatically modify in export flow	It is also possible to update document export lines, export the lines and modify field in one flow. • In the field Modify after export choose if the flow should just Modify or Modify and recalculated the header/lines in the template- ready for next run. To run the fill document Export Flow • Click on Run Full Document Export Flow